Council History

SUCCESS

“Yes” it has been two years all ready and we have another Past Grand Knight. He accepted many challenges with a strong team of officers that can be exceptionally proud of their accomplishments. Matt Perez your Past Grand Knight held a steady hand in many of our council operations. As times become more challenging each year many of the old operations we have lived by in the past have changed.

We have always kept Unity, Charity, Fraternity and Patriotism in the forefront of our goals, with the church as our guide. As the past Grand Knight hands the gavel to our next leader you can be assured that he will lead with confidence and success with his officers at his side. As we have said in the past we the membership must step forward and give them all a helping hand.

We cannot say enough to Matt for his leadership and understanding of his fellow membership, we have taken another step to being the great council we are.

Congratulations Matt on a job well done. To Marsha, Matt’s special lady we thank you for your support and time that was given to make this happen....

Our new Grand Knight is an inspiration for us all. A young man with experience Brian Muska. We feel confident he will succeed with a new generation of Knights that will lead us to the future. Remember this is not a one-man team give him and his officers your support.
