Council History

A BROTHER KNIGHT

This Knight was born on February 21, 1966 to Ervin and Carol Merz. He grew up for a short time in the Saginaw area until his family moved to Caro. This young man graduated from Caro High School in 1985 and worked at our local IGA store in Caro. He married Janell Southworth in 1991 and they have two daughters, Kelsey and Ashley. He became interested in our KC softball league and became a part of our family. He worked on many of our projects and became a devoted member of our council. A time went by John became our Grand Knight in the year of 2004 and later was voted Knight of the Year at our awards banquet. It was only two years later they became Family of the Year.

John has been a loyal supporter of our success at our Caro council and in many community projects. He has raised a family to be proud of and gave to the community in many ways. John has enjoyed many evenings with his music talents in the community. We understand, especially the music of the Rolling Stones. He also loved camping and spending time with his family and friends in the community. As the years have gone by John has spent his working days in other occupations and today it is in sales at Garber, Curtis Motors in Caro, stop in and see him.

As we look around, we have been very successful in choosing our leaders and we must continue to reach out for our talent to lead this very successful council of Knights of Columbus.

Thank you, John, and Jannell for your example of a good Christian family...

Respectfully Submitted:

Richard T Bertrand P.G.K.
