

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
MEMORIAL SERVICE
FOR MEMBERS OF THE
KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

*“I am the Resurrection and the Life:
whoever believes in Me, though he should die,
will come to life...”*

(JN 11:25-26)

IMPORTANCE OF PRAYER

ONE of the most important ways Knights of Columbus support each other is through prayer, especially at the time of death. Brother Knights demonstrate their fraternity in exemplary measure when they pray for the soul of a departed Knight and console the members of his family. In this regard, the Knights have continued the venerable tradition of praying the Rosary during the wake of a departed brother. In order to facilitate this important prayer, a Knights of Columbus Memorial Service has been developed for use throughout the Order. All councils and assemblies are urged to use this service as they pray at the wakes of the faithfully departed.

DEVOTION TO OUR LADY

IN keeping with the spirit of our founder, Father Michael J. McGivney, and our namesake, Christopher Columbus, the Knights of Columbus encourages devotion to Our Lady as a way of becoming closer to Christ. It is most fitting, therefore, that the Rosary of Our Lady should be prayed at the wake of a departed brother Knight. Prayer of the Rosary assures family members that Mary, the Mother of the Church, will guide the soul of the departed brother to her Son, and help strengthen the fraternal bonds of charity that exist between living brother Knights and their families.

THIRD AND FOURTH DEGREE

THE Knights of Columbus Memorial Service has been designed for use at the wakes of members of both the Third and Fourth Degrees. It is understood, however, that the traditions of assemblies may differ from those of councils, specifically in the presence of an honor guard and the presentation of a chalice. Nevertheless, the Rosary should be prayed at the wake of every brother Knight (family and pastor permitting). For a member of the Fourth Degree, it is desirable that councils and assemblies work together so that one, jointly sponsored prayer service is offered instead of two separate ones.

PROCEDURE FOR MEMORIAL SERVICE

FOLLOWING the death of a brother Knight, the members of his local council or assembly should proceed in the following manner in preparation for his wake:

1) Notification of Death

When any member of a council or assembly becomes aware of a brother Knight's death, he should immediately inform the Grand Knight, Faithful Navigator or officer deputized to arrange council or assembly participation at wakes. If possible, information concerning the brother's death, surviving family, wake hours, place and time of the funeral and burial should be provided.

2) Contact the Family of the Deceased

The Grand Knight, Faithful Navigator or deputized officer should contact the family of the deceased, either by phone or in person. Knights in contact with family members should express not only profound sympathy, but also demonstrate a willingness to assist the family in its temporal and emotional needs. Certain families may need transportation to the wake or funeral, baby-sitting or house-sitting services, help with shopping, cooking or cleaning, or simply a receptive ear to the cries of grief. Members of the family should be asked if they would like the Knights of Columbus to lead the Rosary during the wake of the departed Knight. While tentative plans may be made, the time of the Knights' service should not be firmly established until discussed with the pastor of the church where the Mass of Christian Burial will take place.

3) Contact the Pastor

The Grand Knight, Faithful Navigator or deputized officer should contact the pastor of the church where the Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated. He should inform him of the council's or assembly's desire and the family's willingness to hold a Knights of Columbus Memorial Service for the deceased. So that council or assembly activities will not inconvenience the pastor's plans for the Church's formal Vigil for the Deceased, a time for the Knights' service should be established at the pastor's convenience. The pastor may desire to participate in the Knights of Columbus service, incorporate the Knights' ceremony into the Church's formal Vigil for the Deceased, or allow the council to hold its service independently. Over time, a regular agreement may be established with the pastor as to the time and format of memorial services under his jurisdiction. Councils or assemblies should be aware that while most wakes occur within funeral homes, some are held within a parish church (particularly those of priests and deacons).

Important note: The universal Church prescribes a wake service that is usually conducted by a priest or deacon. Prayers offered by Knights of Columbus members during wake services are in no way intended to interfere with or replace the normative Vigil for the Deceased prescribed by the Church, nor local diocesan customs. If a pastor objects to a wake service sponsored by the Knights, then members of a council or assembly should attend the wake and pray privately.

4) Contact the Funeral Director

Many funeral directors do not allow services to be held on their premises unless they are informed of the time and length of the ceremony. The Grand Knight, Faithful Navigator or deputized officer should coordinate with the funeral director as to the starting time of the Knights' service and the estimated length of 15-20 minutes. Funeral directors are often helpful in assembling the guests for the commencement of the memorial service.

5) Assembling the Brothers

Once a time for the Knights' service has been established, the Grand Knight, Faithful Navigator or deputized brother should contact as many brother Knights as possible, asking for attendance at a Knights of Columbus memorial service. A substantial group should try to gather at a set time. If contacted members of the council cannot attend the wake at the prescribed time, they should be encouraged to attend the wake, funeral or burial individually. If the departed brother belonged to an assembly, an honor guard should be present at the wake according to local customs.

6) Selecting Roles

If the pastor of the local parish plans to participate in the Knights of Columbus Memorial Service, he should act as presider. If the council or assembly chaplain plans to be present, he should act as presider unless the pastor is present and wishes to preside. If neither the local pastor nor council nor assembly chaplain plans to participate, one council member needs to be selected as the presider. However, if any priest or deacon is present during the memorial service, the role of presider should be given to him. In addition, five brothers need to be selected as leaders who will announce and lead each decade of the Rosary. If less than five brothers are in attendance, then one brother will have to lead two or more decades (see Appendices I & II for the Mysteries and proper days of the Rosary).

7) Memorial Service Materials

Rosaries and Rosary cards are available to councils or assemblies for use at memorial services. Members of the council or assembly should keep in mind that some family members may wish to keep these as a remembrance of the Knights' participation during the wake. The Knights of Columbus Memorial Service booklet should remain with the council or assembly for use by brothers involved in the planning and implementation of the memorial service.

8) Presentations

a) Resolutions: It remains a laudable custom that councils and assemblies read and present an official Resolution of Condolence at the conclusion of the memorial service. Certificates of these resolutions (both Third and Fourth Degree) are available from the Supreme Council Supply Department. If certificates are not available at the time of the wake, the text of the resolutions should be read to the family (see Appendix III for the texts of the resolutions).

b) Chalice: If a departed brother belonged to an assembly participating in a chalice program, the presentation of the chalice should be made at the conclusion of the memorial service.

9) November Memorial Service

In addition to its use at wakes, councils and assemblies are encouraged to use the Knights of Columbus Memorial Service during their annual memorial service held each November for all departed brothers and their families.

MEMORIAL SERVICE
AT THE WAKE OF A
KNIGHT OF COLUMBUS

After the guests are assembled, the Grand Knight or Faithful Navigator begins the memorial service. If he is not present, another officer or the selected presider begins:

GRAND KNIGHT, FAITHFUL NAVIGATOR OR PRESIDER: Dear friends, shortly before his own Passion, our Lord Jesus wept tears with Mary and Martha upon the death of Lazarus. In the midst of this sorrow, he told Martha: “I am the Resurrection and the Life: whoever believes in Me, though he should die, will come to life” (Jn 11:25-26). Jesus raised Lazarus from the tomb to teach us that death is not the end for those who believe, but rather a glorious beginning. Upon leaving this world, the faithfully departed begin their journey toward a heavenly dwelling place, prepared for them by Christ who rose from the dead (cf., Jn14:2-3). The passing away of our earthly life, therefore, is a transition to a new life in which “every tear is wiped from our faces” (cf., Is 25:8) and sickness, pain and suffering are no more.

Every Knight of Columbus is entrusted to the care of Mary, the Mother of God. We carry the Rosary as the sign of our dedication to her and to her Son. Confident in her motherly love for us all, we entrust the soul of our brother _____ (Name) to her, that she may present him to her Son. As an expression of our fraternal concern, let us pray together the rosary of Our Lady.

*The introduction having been made,
the presider begins:*

PRESIDER: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen.

*The presider leads the people
in the recitation of the Creed:*

ALL: I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His Only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

*The presider leads the people
in praying the Our Father:*

PRESIDER: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

The people respond:

ALL: Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

*The presider leads the people in praying
the Hail Mary three times:*

PRESIDER: Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

ALL: Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen. (Repeat three times.)

The presider leads the people in praying the Glory be:

PRESIDER: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

ALL: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The presider continues:

The decades having been completed, the presider leads the people in praying the Hail, Holy Queen:

PRESIDER: Hail Holy Queen...

ALL: ...Mother of Mercy! Hail, our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this, our exile, show unto us the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary.

PRESIDER: Queen of the Most Holy Rosary pray for us...

ALL: ...that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

PRESIDER: Let us pray...

ALL: O God, whose only Begotten Son, by His life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of everlasting life, pray, we beseech Thee, that meditating on these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

PRESIDER: May the Divine assistance remain always with us...

ALL: ...and may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

PRESIDER: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen.

Or, if the presider is a bishop or priest:

† May Almighty God bless you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

ALL: Amen.

GRAND KNIGHT, FAITHFUL NAVIGATOR OR PRESIDER: Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, we present to you the soul of our brother _____, _____ (Name) _____,
that you may lead him into the presence of your Son. We look forward to the day when we will all join _____ in that heavenly king-
(Name) _____
