*FEATURED PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

For every $500 given to an individual seminarian or religious aspirant, Supreme will refund the council or assembly $100. The maximum refund a council or assembly can receive is $400 per individual supported. In addition to financial support, Councils are also required to provide some form of moral and spiritual support for their success.

The following persons are eligible to receive RSVP funds:

- Seminarians who have been accepted by a diocese and are currently in their “spirituality” year
- Seminarians attending major seminaries (usually four years) in preparation for priestly ordination
- Seminarians in their “pastoral” year (most often when they are deacons)
- Seminarians attending college seminaries (sometimes called minor seminaries)
- Seminarians who belong to a religious institute and are currently in formation for the priesthood (religious seminarians often are called “Brother” even though they will eventually be ordained as priests)
- Men and women who are novices or postulants in religious orders or religious communities

Those eligible for assistance include foreign seminarians studying in the United States or Canada; U.S. or Canadian seminarians studying overseas; seminarians from your home diocese currently attending seminaries in another diocese, state, or country; and seminarians from other states or dioceses attending a seminary located in your jurisdiction.

The following persons are NOT eligible to receive RSVP Funds:

- Priests or religious seeking assistance for continuing education • Candidates for the permanent diaconate
- Religious brothers not currently studying for the priesthood
