Speaker Information

Lisa Gigliotti, Esq. is an author of several books which explore the fears and values society places on the end of life and people with disabilities. She maintains a fulfilling life despite two debilitating illnesses, achieving successful legal and policy careers. She is currently a Bioethics Law Professor and an advocate for people with disabilities and for improving end-of-life care.

Dr. Robin Pierucci is a board-certified neonatologist with over 25 years of experience supporting parents through difficult prenatal diagnoses. With a master's degree in medical ethics, her medical knowledge and commitment to compassionate communication helps families receive accurate information and emotional support.

Rev. Jeffrey Hanley is a priest of the Diocese of Kalamazoo. He holds a bachelor's in theology from the Angelicum in Rome and a licentiate in Canon Law from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome. Currently, Fr. Jeff serves as Pastor of St. Rose of Lima Parish in Hastings and of St. Cyril of Jerusalem in Nashville. He also serves as Vice-Chancellor for the Diocese of Kalamazoo and works in the Diocese's Marriage Tribunal.

ATTENDANCE FEE: The individual fee for attending this event is just $25.00 - to help defray the cost of putting on the conference. The $25.00 fee includes a catered lunch. Special fee for students - $18.00 (includes lunch).
